Financial assistance is available, but is limited. Families must first be registered and have paid registration fees before applying for financial assistance.

Deadline for applying for assistance is April 27, 2018.

Based upon the belief that a diverse student body adds importance breadth to the educational experience of all its students, Canton Academy maintains a substantial commitment to providing financial aid. No family should assume that CA's education is out of reach solely for financial reasons. If the cost of Canton Academy's education is beyond one's means financially, a parent should apply for financial assistance.

For more information or to ask a question regarding tuition, fees, or financial assistance please call the CA business office at 601-859-5231.
